in the jewelry business at 926 Penn-sylvania Avenue, Washington City, where he is well and favorably kno was a victim of that worst form of dis ease-contagious blood poison. He realized that his life was about to be blasted, for this terrible disease has baffled the skill of the physicians for ages, and they have never yet been able to effect a cure. His mental despair can better be imagined than

In a recent letter he says: "About four years ago I contracted a severe case of contagious blood poison, and it was not long before I was in a terri ble condition. I immediately placed myself under treatment of two of the best physicians in Washington city. fully for six months, cost me just three hundred dollars, and left me worse than when I began it. My condition can best be appreciated, when I state that my throat and mouth were full of sores and my tongue was almost eaten away I had not taken solid food for three months. My entire body was covered with red blotches, my hands and feet were sore and my hair was falling out rapidly. I was in a truly pitiable

"I felt that I was incurable, and was in great despair, when a friend recommended S. S. S., stating that it would certainly cure me. I began its use, and when I had finished the fourth bottle, I began to improve, and by the time I had finished eighteen bottles, I was thoroughly rid of the disease; of course, I was not sure that I was cured, but am now convinced, as no sign of the disease has ever returned for four years. S. S. S. is the best blood remedy in the world, and my cure was due solely and alone to it."

Contagious blood poison is the most horrible of all diseases, and has been appropriately called the curse of man-kind. It has always beffed the kind. It has always baffled the doc-tors, and, until the discovery of S. S. S., was incurable. For fifty years S. S. S. has been curing this terrible disease, even after all other treatment failed. It is guaranteed purely vegetable, and one thou-sand dollars reward is offered for proof to the contrary. S. S. S. never fails to cure contagious blood poison, or any other disease of the blood. If you have a blood disease, take a remedy which will not injure you. Be ware of mercury; don't do violence to your system.

Try Electric Bitters as a remedy for your troubles? If not, get a bottle now and get relief. This medicine has been found to be peculiarly adapted to the relief and cure of all female complaints, exerting a wonderful direct influence in giving strength and tone to the organs. If you have Loss of Appetite, Constipation, Headache, Fainting Spells, or are Nervous, Sleepless, Excitable, Melanchoy or troubled with Dizzy Spells, Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use, Fifty cents and $1.00 at A. R. Fisher's

Regulations for Lent.

All the week-days of Lent from Ash-Wednesday to Easter Sanday are fastdays of precept, on one meal, with the allowance of a moderate collation in the evening. The Church excuses from the obligation of fasting (but not of abstinence from firsh-meat, except in special cases sickness) the infirm, those who are attaining their growth, those whose duties are of an exhausting or laborious character, women in pregnancy or nursing infants, and those who are enfeebled by old age.

The following dispensations are granted for this diocese by the authority of the Holy See :

1. The use of flesh-meat, as also of eggs and white-meate, is permitted at every meal on the Sundays of Lent, and at the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of Saturday in Ember week and Holy Saturday.

2. Custom also allo as the use of eggs, butter, milk, etc, at the evening collation, and also at the principal meal on beautiul, though the weather is dark the days on which the u e of fl sh meat

3 The quality of food allowed at a collation in this diocese, is bread, fruit, salads, vegetables and cold fish.

4 A small piece of bread, with a cup of coffee, tea or choc late, can be taken in the morning. 5. Where it is not convenient to take the principal meal at noon, it is lawful to invert the order, and take collation in the morning and dinner in the evening.

6. Drippings and lard may be used in the preparation of the kin's of food which are permitted. 7. On Sunday there is neither fasting nor abstinence, but fish cannot be used with flesh-meat at the same meal or any

Sunday during Lent. 8. Those who are exempt from the precept of fasting can partake of fl-shmeat at every meal during the day when by special indult flesh-meat is permitted at the principal meal. The time for fulfilling the Easter precept of Communion in the diocese extends from the first Sunday in Lent to Trinity Sunday inclusive. By virtue of the Indult granted to us by the Holy See, March 15, 1895, We permit to all workingmen and their families the use of flesh meat once a day on all fast days and abstinence days throughout the year, with the exception of Fridays, Ash-Wednesday, the Wednesday and Saturday of Holy Week and the Eve of Christmas.

Those who are exempt from the obligation of fasting are free to take meat more than once on the days mentioned. Those who avail themselves of this Indult are not allowed to use fl sh meat and fish at the same meal, and they are earnestly exhorted to perform some other act of mortification, such as abstinence from intoxicating liquors.

(New York World.)

The World has polled by telegraph the Democratic regular organizations in all the States on this question : " If the Democratic National Convention net to-morrow would William J. Bryan again be chosen as the Democratic candidate or President !" The result is an extraordinary concensus of opinion, showing, with hardly an exception, that the Democratic organizations everywhere, as well as the Democratic National Committee, are as devoted to Mr. Bryan as ever. A majority of them believe that he will not only be nominated but elected in 1900.
